

2019 Meigs County Junior Fair King and Queen Application

- The regulations for the King and Queen contest comply with the requirements for the State Contest.
 - The Meigs County Fair King, Queen, Runner-Up, Livestock Prince, and Livestock Princess are selected from the applications submitted from members of the various youth organizations including 4-H, FFA, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Grange on the basis of the following criteria:
 1. The King and Queen must be at least 16 years, but not older than 19 as of January 1st of the current year, not married nor have been married, nor have borne a child or be with child.
 2. No individual can serve as King or Queen or Acting King or Queen of the county or representative at the State Fair more than once. The Queen will be obligated to attend the Ohio Fair Managers Queens Contest during the first week in January unless illness or an emergency occurs and must immediately notify the Junior Fair Coordinator if unable to attend.
 3. The King and the Queen and runners-up must have an exhibit in some form entered in the Junior Fair.
 4. The King and Queen will make themselves available for special presentations at the livestock shows and sales, and any other time as directed by the Junior Fair Board. Specific dress coded attire will be expected at all times. (See code of conduct sheet.)
 5. Sash, Crown, and other official Royalty Attire issued by the Junior Fair Board must be worn at all times. (Unless washing or showing animals.)
 6. The Royalty will be in all photos taken under the direction of the Junior and Senior Fair Boards.
 7. The Junior and Senior Fair Boards expect courteous and orderly conduct by the applicants and their families. Harassment, profanity, or questionable conduct towards the fair officials, judges, or coordinators, or other applicants will not be tolerated. Violators will be escorted from the fairgrounds.
 8. If you have served as royalty in the past and the minimum requirements were not met during that reign you will be ineligible to run in the future competitions.
